INCOG Update

Jane Ziegler shared updates on INCOG projects.

Grant Application for River Trails. The City of Tulsa and the City of Jenks have submitted an application for grant funds to extend and improve the River Trails southward on both sides of the river. BPAC submitted a letter of support. Grant awards will be announced in Fall 2020.

Regional Trail Logo. The new regional trail branding is complete. The name is 918-Trails and the tagline is "This Is Your Trail." A sign manual is available to guide municipalities to standards for wayfinding sign design. A two-month media campaign will launch once River Parks has installed new signs. BPAC members are invited to promote the new branding beginning in July.

New Regional Bike Map. The new "subway style" (not to scale) regional bike map is published on the INCOG website. It will be updated about every 18 months.

This Machine. Tulsa Bike Share is replacing its entire fleet with 160 electric bikes which will be deployed next week. The system is supported by a new app and a new vendor.

Active Transportation Priority Score Model

Wynes shared a presentation and described the Active Transportation Priority Score model including data points and weighting. Members made suggestions for additional data points and commended INCOG planners for the quality of the model.

Other Business

Parklets. Councilor McKee is working with DCC to expedite the parklet approval process so that restaurants may utilize parking spaces for outside dining. She invited BPAC members to review the proposal when it is published with the City Council agenda.

Neighborhood Street Closures. City staff are investigating procedures to allow neighborhood residents to close city streets to provide more outdoor recreation space during COVID-19 lockdown.

Upcoming Events

The Infrastructure Committee will meet virtually on June 15, 2020. The next BPAC meeting will be held virtually on July 9, 2020.
